AUTHOR GUIDELINES

Papers submitted to the Journal should be original materials in the field of development, not previously published or under consideration for publication elsewhere.

Text: Follow this order when typing manuscripts:

Manuscripts should be in English Only.

Full Manuscripts from Title to References should not exceed 20 pages.
Must be type written in Times New Roman with a font size of 12pt in Microsoft Word format.
Main text of manuscript should be double-spacing.
Justification left=1.5 Bottom=1 Right=1 Top=1 justify left only. Do not format.

The first page should contain the following:
Title of the paper should be BOLD and CAPITALIZED
The authors’ name: Surname first, other names initialized. APUSIGAH, A. A.
Institutional affiliation and e-mail address, a complete address for the corresponding author.

There should be a separate cover page for, title of manuscript, author(s) name, postal address, e-mail address, telephone numbers, institution/departmental affiliation and position (e.g. research fellow, lecturer) and disciplinary area (Agricultural Economics, Adult Education).
No such information should appear in any other pages of the manuscripts.

Abstract
The manuscript should contain an abstract of not more than 250 words. It should give the synopsis of the title, problem/theme, methods, findings/arguments and conclusion(s).

Keywords/Descriptors
Authors should also suggest five keywords or descriptors that clearly indicate the subject matter of the article. These should immediately precede the introduction.

Subsequent pages of the manuscripts should contain the main work: the introduction, problem/theme, methods, findings/arguments and conclusion(s).

Clearly indicate heading levels throughout the main work and should be as follows:
Headings: Capitalize each major word and make your text bold. For example, 'The Library and Information Dissemination'

Subheading: Capitalize each major word and italicize your text. For example, 'Sources of Information'

Abbreviations
Abbreviations in the manuscript should clearly be defined by giving the name in full on its first occurrence followed by the abbreviation in parentheses. Subsequently only the abbreviation may be used. Author should ensure consistency of abbreviations throughout the article.

Figures, Diagrams and Graphs
All necessary illustrations such as photographs, diagrams and charts or graphs should be referred to in the text as figures. They should be given Arabic numerals numbered consecutively in the order in which they appear in the text. All figures should appear in the text with titles and sources as follows:

Figure 1: School Enrollment 2003

Figure 2: Map Showing the Study Area
Source: Owusu-Sekyere (2016)

Tables
Tables should include only essential details. They should be given Arabic numerals and referred to in the text. All tables should appear in the text with titles and sources as follows:

Table 1: School Enrollment 2003

Please ensure the figures and the tables included in the manuscript are placed next to the relevant text in the article. These should be editable text and not images. Please ensure that the data presented in them do not duplicate results described elsewhere in the article.

References
References cited in the text should agree with those in the reference list and vice versa (references cited in the reference). All titles in the reference list should not be abbreviated but rather spelt out.

Any references cited in the abstract must be given in full.

Unpublished results and personal communications mentioned in the text should be properly referenced. They should be included in the reference list. They should follow the standard reference style with the publication date changed with "Unpublished results" or "Personal communication".
References in text should be quoted as follows:
Kasise, (2000) or (Kasise, 2000);
Kaleo and Bawumia (2004) or (Kaleo & Bawumia, 2004).

Names of multiple authors should all be listed at first use only Kaleo, Bawumia and Kaba (2004) or (Kaleo, Bawumia & Kaba, 2004); subsequent use should appear as Kaleo et al. (2004).

Page numbers should be provided for direct quotes. For example (Kaba, 2000:12).

A full reference list capturing author name, year of publication, title of work, edition or volume if any, and city and state of publication as well as publisher name in that order should be provided.

Apart from classics, use current date and references. Date and references more than 10 years are considered old and their use discouraged.

All references should appear at the end of the paper in alphabetical order, in strict accordance, as follows:

JOURNAL ARTICLE

Single author:

Multiple authors:
Up to seven authors

More than seven authors

BOOK

An Edited Book

An Article in a Collection

A Book by a Corporate Author

Internet References

Information about the author, name(s), dates, reference to a source publication and any further detail should be given if known. And or at least, the full URL and the date when the reference was last accessed should be given. For example:

The Journal and the University for Development Studies are not liable in case of any anomalies on the part of authors and/or inaccuracies in published works.

As a publisher of this Journal, the University for Development Studies reserves full copyright ownership of the Journal and all submissions published in it.